OUR STORY.

A Trusted Name in Plumbing & Heating

CDH Plumbing and Heating Limited is a family-run plumbing and heating contractor based near Manchester. We specialise in delivering high-quality, reliable services to both new build developments and large-scale renovation projects within a 2-hour radius of the North West.

Founded in 2024 by Callum Hall — who brings over a decade of hands-on experience — we're committed to raising the standard of mechanical installation in both social and private housing markets across the UK. Whether it's high-end residential or multi-unit housing, we bring attention to detail and a personal approach to every project.

“Every project taken on by us is given the care, attention and commitment as if it was my own home. We are committed to deliver quality in every single step.”
